REF: 1:18-CV-08653-VEC-SDA, D. George Sweigert vs. Jason Goodman

RELIEF REQUESTED: Postponement of December 15th, 2021, discovery conference, or, in the alternative, extension of the discovery period ordered by ECF doc. 173.

Dear Judge Aaron,

The undersigned is the Plaintiff in this case, a non-attorney.

In ECF doc. 332 your honor has scheduled a discovery conference for December 15th, 2021, at 2:00 pm (docket entries are depicted in EXHIBIT ONE).

As stated in the ECF doc. 173 ORDER, Defendant was compelled to provide, “b) All documents and communications between Defendant and any law enforcement agency regarding Plaintiff. c) All emails sent or received by Defendant regarding Plaintiff.” EXHIBIT ONE.

As described in the last paragraph of this letter, the Defendant admitted to the spoliation of the lion's share of e-mail messages from his PROTONMAIL.COM account, creating significant prejudice to the Plaintiff.

In testimony and letters provided in related litigation (see EXHIBIT TWO) the Defendant has informed that court of extensive e-mail communications with Larry E. Klayman, esq., the conservative alt-right celebrity that is a co-host of the Defendant for the “Citizens Grand Jury” podcasts. These communications also included so-called extensive interaction with law enforcement.

As stated by the Defendant, “Separate and apart from this legal matter, Sweigert has been waging an online harassment, defamation and letter writing campaign against my personal friend and associate Larry Klayman. The emails at issue between me and Mr. Klayman pertain to our ongoing cooperation with various law enforcement agencies to seek redress from Sweigert's cyber harassment. Mr. Klayman does not represent me in any legal action, but we are cooperating in an effort to stop Sweigert via legal means.” ECF doc. 120, page 2 of 3 (EXHIBIT THREE).

EXTENDING DISCOVERY PERIOD

This letter requests that the original discovery period for the production of documents for the defendant (EXHIBIT ONE, ECF no. 173) be extended to include the timeframe April 1, 2021, to December 1, 2021.

E-mail messages exchanged by the Defendant between April 1, 2021 and December 1, 2021 are particularly relevant to demonstrate “actual malice” as Mr. Klayman appears to be the ghost writer behind more than three (3) years of the Defendant’s podcasts and court filings.

To avoid the appearance of prejudicial favoritism it would be prudent for the Court to extend the demands of the ECF doc. 173 ORDER to include the time period of April 1, 2021, to December 1, 2021. This would encompass the e-mail messages exchanged between the Defendant and Larry Klayman, as they are “cooperating in an effort to stop Sweigert via legal means.”

What the Defendant is “trying to stop” is the exposure of the guidance provided by Larry Klayman to the Defendant to fashion statements concerning the reporting of the Plaintiff to law enforcement agencies for criminal activities (see Statements 1, 2, and 3 under the Court’s review). These statements lack legal foundation and are baseless and were most likely fabricated by Mr. Klayman. An examination of such e-mail messages will confirm this fact.

IN THE ALTERNATIVE, POSTPONEMENT OF THE 12/15/2021 HEARING

As the Court is aware, the Defendant is presently the subject of a Contempt of Court proceeding in related litigation (EXHIBIT TWO, ECF doc. 123). A SHOW CAUSE hearing was held on this contempt of court matter on 10/25/2021 but documented findings have not been published as of this date.

Further, the Defendant’s company, Multimedia Systems Design, Inc. (MSDI) is facing a SHOW CAUSE decision regarding DEFAULT JUDGMENT on 11/30/2021 (EXHIBIT TWO, ECF doc. 131).

The discovery conference (ECF doc. 332) should be postponed until the final resolution of the issues related to contempt of court and default judgment as both speak to the Defendant’s conduct of playing fast and loose with the rules of this Court (see ECF doc. 268, EXHIBIT FOUR).

It is well documented (EXHIBIT FOUR) that the Defendant provided false testimony to Judge Valerie E. Caproni during the April 30th, 2021, discovery conference (EXHIBIT TWO, ECF doc. 59). Thus, the Defendant has already demonstrated that he will provide false information to the Court in a discovery conference. He will undoubtedly do so on 12/15/2021.

The undersigned declares under penalties of perjury, that he heard Judge Caproni describe the Defendant as “not credible” during the 10/25/2021 contempt of court hearing (EXHIBIT TWO, ECF doc. 123).

It is anticipated that the final orders regarding the contempt of court and default judgment will elaborate on the Defendant's duplicitous conduct in that proceeding (EXHIBIT TWO). To protect the integrity of the discovery conference (presently schedule of 12/15/2021) this Court should await the orders in related litigation.

The magistrate judge should be aware of these pending orders to guide the accommodations given to the Defendant. Confirmation that the Defendant has been held for Contempt of Court should guide the discovery conference. Otherwise, the Defendant will merely tell a falsehood to the magistrate judge as he has already done to the presiding judge. All to the Plaintiff's detriment.

DEFENDANT'S SPOILIATION OF E-MAIL MESSAGES

The Court should recall that the Defendant was served with litigation in September 2017, see ROBERT DAVID STEELE, v. JASON GOODMAN, et al., Civil Action No. 3:17-cv-601, Eastern District of Virginia. Therefore, the Defendant knew of litigation and his responsibility to preserve and safeguard e-mail communications to prevent spoliation.

Tellingly, the Defendant conveniently "forgot" the password to his PROTONMAIL.COM e-mail account when responding to ECF doc. 173's discovery demands. The Defendant has testified to this Court that he was instructed by the originator of the "dirty bomb hoax" rumor, Oakey Marshall Richards, to obtain the PROTONMAIL.COM e-mail account.

As the Court is aware, the Defendant continued his podcast broadcasts of Mr. Marshall's materials (as "ROCK HUDSON") until March of 2018. This includes the period in which many of the defamatory statements under the Court's review were made.

Respectfully,

D. George Sweigert
Veteran U.S. Air Force

EXHIBIT THREE

Case 1:20-cv-07269-VEC-OTW Document 120 Filed 09/13/21 Page 2 of 3

Plaintiff's response letter underscores the importance of my prior counsel's failure to provide written notice objecting to the confidentiality designation. Learning this detail for the first time now only furthers my frustration with Mr. Snyder. I made it very clear to him at the outset of this matter that I wanted the identity of that person brought into this case and I still do. I do not believe justice can be properly served until that identity is known and the source and motivation of that email are fully understood.

Plaintiff's third audacious allegation is predicated on the ludicrous claim that they know what I did or did not understand and the time of my email to Mr. Klayman. As the court and Plaintiff are aware, for the past three years David G. Sweigert has pursued me and my friends and colleagues in a virtually psychotic endeavor to involve himself in and foment as many legal actions against me as he can. I have previously alleged he is doing this to harass me and destroy me financially. Simultaneously, he engages in extrajudicial activities including cyber stalking, harassment, and interference with my business and personal relationships, including inappropriate efforts to thwart Mr. Snyder's representation of me in this instant action.

Separate and apart from this legal matter, Sweigert has been waging an online harassment, defamation and letter writing campaign against my personal friend and associate Larry Klayman. The emails at issue between me and Mr. Klayman pertain to our ongoing cooperation with various law enforcement agencies to seek redress from Sweigert's cyber harassment. Mr. Klayman does not represent me in any legal action, but we are cooperating in an effort to stop Sweigert via legal means.

SUBJ: Issues concerning non-availability of the JASON GOODMAN YouTube channel
1:18-cv-08653-VEC-SDA

Your Honor,

1. During a discovery conference in related litigation before District Judge Valerie E. Caproni, on 4/30/2021 the Defendant advised Judge Caproni that his JASON GOODMAN YouTube channel was no longer on-line because of behavior directly related to the undersigned.
2. Opposing counsel in the related litigation questioned why the JASON GOODMAN YouTube channel is not available on-line for the acquisition of discoverable defamatory statements. The Defendant, speaking directly to Judge Caproni, advised that the “account” disabling was a direct result of “David Sweigert” for supposed privacy and/or copyright strikes.
3. The undersigned completed a rigorous review of the situation and was able to locate one privacy complaint (or “strike”) filed by the undersigned against the JASON GOODMAN YouTube channel on August 9, 2020. This “privacy strike” was denied, which made the complaint moot, resulting in absolutely no detrimental impact to the JASON GOODMAN channel.
4. The JASON GOODMAN YouTube channel remains in “private” status, a visibility control directly in the hands of the Defendant and no one else. As Judge Caproni has already mistakenly reported that BOTH the Defendant and the undersigned “have missed deadlines”, the Plaintiff has zero tolerance for any more flippant assertions made to Judge Caproni or this Court.

Respectfully,

D. Geo. Sweigert
